Test the Latest Waterproof Insulated Workwear

We know cold. After all, RefrigiWear invented the original freezer suit for meatpackers. No matter if you're working on the shipping dock, the chiller or the blast freezer, we've got gear to keep you warm and dry so you can focus on getting the job done.

Visit booth #B38067 to test a selection of the latest waterproof PPE and insulated workwear from RefrigiWear:

- HiVis Waterproof Bomber Jacket - Stay dry and stay visible in temperatures down to 0°F. Need to flash your TWIC card or company ID? Stow it in the clear-fronted badge pocket. Keep a pen or stylus handy for paperwork or digital screens in the pencil pocket on the sleeve.
- HiVis Insulated Waterproof Pants - You're always ready to do whatever it takes to keep the wheels rolling and the product flowing in HiVis Insulated Waterproof Pants. Get a leg up on sanitation duty or work through wet weather in pants that keep you dry and warm.
- Dual-Layer Waterproof Double Dip Glove - Your hands deserve the best protection. Our Dual-Layer Waterproof Double Dip Glove combines functionality with durability, offering a grip that won't slip and insulation that won't quit.
- HiVis Safety Vest with LED Lights – Stay seen and stay safe in a HiVis safety vest that not only keeps you visible but also adds an extra layer of safety with integrated LED lights to make you highly visible in low-light conditions.

Tried, Tested, Trusted

Every member of the RefrigiWear team is dedicated to the safety and comfort of the hardworking people we serve. That commitment to quality, durability and dependability is evident in every stitch of RefrigiWear gear.
