

AFCO|Zep Sr. Corporate Microbiologist to give Food Sanitation Tech Talk at IPPE 2018

January 19 2018

Components of a Successful Food Sanitation Program - Tech Talk by AFCO|Zep

Atlanta, GA, January 19, 2018 – Learn how to build a successful sanitation program that eliminates and prevents microbial, physical, and chemical contamination in food products, while keeping allergens out of allergen-free foods – the main reason behind foodborne outbreaks and product recalls.

You will leave this Tech Talk knowing:

- How to troubleshoot problem areas in your food processing environment
- The differences among the Food Safety Prerequisite Programs
- Factors to consider when selecting sanitation chemicals
- The main steps for cleaning and sanitizing food-processing areas
- The benefits of cleaning verses sanitizing

Please join Sr. Corporate Microbiologist Adel Makdesi of AFCO|Zep on Wednesday, January 31 at 4:00 pm in B8715 at the International Production & Processing Expo in Atlanta, Georgia for this Tech Talks session. The convention will take place January 30 - February 1 at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta.
