FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AG GROWTH INTERNATIONAL (AGI) CONFIRMS PARTICIPATION FOR THE 2017 INTERNATIONAL PRODUCTION & PROCESSING EXPO (IPPE)

WINNIPEG, MB – January 11th, 2017 – Ag Growth International (AGI) (TSX: AFN) is pleased to announce its participation in the 2017 International Production and Processing Expo (IPPE) beginning January 31, 2017. AGI and its industry leading brands including, Hi Roller, Union Iron, Tramco, Airlanco, VIS and MMS will be on display in Booth #B7433. In addition to this, AGI’s newest acquisition, Yargus, will be displaying their product line at Booth #B7361.

“We are very excited to participate in the IPPE show once again,” said George Vis, Senior Vice President, Commercial Operations (North America). “The livestock and poultry feed industry is a significant part of the agricultural processing market and AGI is proud to support it. With the addition of VIS, NuVision, Mitchell Mill Systems and Yargus to the AGI Commercial portfolio, AGI has significantly enhanced its knowledge and capabilities to serve the feed manufacturing industry in North America and around the world based on the decades of experience brought to AGI by the people at these operations. AGI’s global capabilities are a great fit with the international attendance of IPPE.

Expanding AGI’s presence in the livestock and poultry feed industry has been a significant initiative for AGI and its brands and will continue to be a focus throughout 2017.
