Michael Foods, Inc. contracted Gleeson Constructors & Engineers, LLC., to design and construct a new egg-processing facility in Norwalk, Iowa. The processing plant was built on thirty-three acres and is a 150,000 square-foot. Michael Foods sells about 1.5 billion pounds of egg product a year, and this plant will process eggs and pre-cooked egg products. The project was built on schedule and on budget!