Reconnect with National FFA Alumni at IPPE this January

INDIANAPOLIS (Monday, Jan. 6, 2020/National FFA Organization) – While attending the International Production and Processing Expo (IPPE) this January, be sure to stop by booth C11715 and reconnect with National FFA Alumni and Supporters.

National FFA staff will be available to share information on how to reconnect with others in the organization and become an active alumni member. In addition, join National FFA Alumni for a reception at the Georgia World Congress Center, Room #C205, from 5-7 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

“We know that our alumni all have different interests and career paths,” said Joshua Rusk, National FFA Alumni and Supporters Executive Director. “At the same time, we are all connected with our values, experiences and intent to change the world. We know our alumni and supporters can help us continue to provide the world’s next generation of leaders, by sharing with our members their experiences and serving as mentors. That’s why we encourage former FFA members and supporters to Check-In with us, and what a better time to connect – at IPPE.”

Former FFA members and supporters who are not attending IPPE, but would still like to reconnect with National FFA, can visit FFA.org.
